

FEBRUARY/MARCH 2009

AN EDGELL PUBLICATION

RIS[®]

RETAIL INFO SYSTEMS NEWS

Stop Sweethearting

StopLift's Checkout Vision System, a new video recognition technology, catches unpaid merchandise left in the middle of the basket, (MOB) bottom of the basket, (BOB) and "sweethearting." Computer vision technology determines what occurs during each transaction to immediately identify fraud at checkout. While monitoring security video, it flags the transaction as suspicious, reports the incident, identifies the cashier and the date and time of the theft.